

Explore Equitable Justice

WITH ESTEEMED LEGAL EXPERTS

On Friday, January 14, the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa presents four classes led by preeminent, nationally-recognized legal experts who will explore fundamental, justice-focused topics:

Access to Vaccines and Global Justice

9:00 - 11:15 am

with Ruth Okediji, Boas HLS Professor, Harvard Law School

Race, Health, and Justice

9:00 - 11:15 am

with Ruquaiijah Yearby, Center for Health Law Studies, Institute for Healing Justice & Equity, St. Louis University School of Law

Access to Justice by Design: Developing a More Human-centered Legal System

2:30 - 5:00 pm

with Margaret Darin Hagan, Legal Design Lab, Stanford Law School

Mindfulness and Professional Identity Development: The Inner Work of Justice for All

5:30 - 7:45 pm

with Rhonda Magee, University of San Francisco School of Law

Who should attend

- Attorneys wishing to stay current on relevant legal issues, including those seeking to earn Hawai'i State Bar Association Continuing Legal Education credits (CLE)
- Professionals who work in areas impacted by equity and social justice issues
- Individuals interested in justice across the spectrum of society

When and where

Friday, January 14, 2022

Online via Zoom

Cost

General: Free, online via Zoom (without CLEs)

Attorneys: $150.00 (including 2 CLEs) per topic

Register now

outreach.hawaii.edu/law-jterm

For more information, please email hagal@hawaii.edu or call (808) 956-9249.

UNIVERSITY of HAWAII at MĀNOA

WILLIAM S. RICHARDSON
SCHOOL OF LAW

UNIVERSITY of HAWAII at MĀNOA

OUTREACH COLLEGE
Continuing and Professional Programs

The University of Hawai'i is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Institution