

EDUCATION & TRAINING

KA HULI AO educates and trains students about the unique aspects of Native Hawaiian law and the intersection of local, federal and international laws affecting Native Hawaiians. Ka Huli Ao offers courses in Native Hawaiian law, Federal Indian law, Environmental law, and Pacific Island Legal Systems, among others, and offers the first-ever Certificate in Native Hawaiian Law.

STUDENT OUTREACH & SUPPORT

KA HULI AO provides students the knowledge and tools to advance the traditions and legal rights of Native Hawaiians and other Pacific and Indigenous Peoples. We inspire and co-power students, especially those from rural and Native Hawaiian communities, to pursue careers in the legal and related fields to achieve social justice for all of Hawai'i's people.

Center for Excellence in Native Hawaiian Law

FACULTY AND STAFF

- D. Kapua'ala Sproat, Director & Professor
- Susan K. Serrano, Associate Director and Faculty Specialist
- Melody Kapilialoha MacKenzie, Founding Director and Professor
- Malia Akutagawa, Associate Professor
- Kamanamaikalani Beamer, Associate Professor
- Lan Nguyen, Faculty Support Specialist
- Sabrina Gramberg, Post-Juris Doctor Legal Fellow
- Ku'upuamae'ole Kiyuna, Post-Juris Doctor Legal Fellow
- U'ilani Tanigawa Lum, Post-Juris Doctor Legal Fellow
- Letani G. Peltier, Post-Juris Doctor Legal Fellow
- N. Mahina Tuteur, Post-Juris Doctor Legal Fellow

For additional information,
please contact:
phone: 808.956.8411
email: nhlawctr@hawaii.edu
facebook: facebook.com/kahuliao

www.law.hawaii.edu/kahuliao
<https://blog.hawaii.edu/kahuliao/>

WILLIAM S. RICHARDSON SCHOOL OF LAW

KA HULI AO
2515 Dole Street
Honolulu, Hawai'i 96822

KA HULI AO

Center For Excellence in Native Hawaiian Law
William S. Richardson School of Law
University of Hawai'i at Mānoa

KA HULI AO CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE IN NATIVE HAWAIIAN LAW is an academic center that promotes education, scholarship, community outreach and collaboration on issues of law, culture and justice for Native Hawaiians and other Pacific and Indigenous Peoples.

RESEARCH & SCHOLARSHIP KA HULI AO conducts cutting-edge research and produces unique scholarship that fosters a deeper understanding of Native Hawaiian law and that impacts Native Hawaiian and other Indigenous communities. Our research and scholarship incorporates history, culture, and present-day context to advance social justice for Native Hawaiians, Pacific and Indigenous Peoples, and all peoples.

POST-JURIS DOCTOR FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM KA HULI AO'S Post-Juris Doctor Research Program in Native Hawaiian law enables recent law graduates to undertake complex research and writing, co-teach courses, facilitate community and student outreach, and contribute to the evolution of Native Hawaiian law through clinics, panel presentations, Native Hawaiian law trainings, and more.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION & OUTREACH KA HULI AO facilitates discourse between the legal community, the Native Hawaiian community, and the community at large through panel presentations, workshops, direct legal services, and community education. Our outreach program informs and engages Native Hawaiian and other peoples to protect valuable natural and cultural Indigenous resources.

